

Online Academy

Europe challenged by populism: Churches as “the salt of the earth”?

How to contribute to living peacefully together in diversity

21-22 June 2021, online (all times CET)

Monday, 21 June 2021

- 12:30 Drop in
- 13:00 Welcome
- 13:15 Getting to know each other
Interactive group activity
- 14:00 “Populism in society: tasty or tasteless? An attempt at understanding.”
Keynote talk & discussion
Speaker: Christel Ngnambi, political scientist & consultant, co-author of the book “Is God a populist?”
- 15:15 Break
- 15:45 Welcome back
Energizing group activity
Introduction to the following workshop in groups
- 16:15 Community table
Workshop in small groups
Task: Mapping the field - Identifying the tasty and tasteless elements of populism in and around our churches.
- 17:15 Feedback and closing
- 17:45 End of afternoon programme
Break
- 20:00 “Salt of the Earth: The role of the Churches in a pluralistic society in the 21st century”
Panel discussion (This evening programme is open to the wider public.)
Panelists:
 - Archbishop Antje Jackelén, Church of Sweden
 - Rt Rev. Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani, CEC Vice-President, Bishop of the Anglican Church (requested)
 - Fr. Dr. Cristian Sonea, Faculty of Orthodox Theology in Cluj-Napoca, Romania
- 21:00 End of the day

Tuesday, 22 June 2021

08:30 Drop in

09:00 Welcome

09:15 “Salt as an antiseptic: how to heal wounds of division”

Case studies

Topic: Populist movements and the responses of Churches around Europe

Speakers:

- The Romanian case: Associated Professor Dr Adrian Papahagi, Babes-Bolyai University, Romania
- The Italian case: Professor Paolo Naso, Sapienza University Rome, coordinator of Mediterranean Hope project of the Federation Protestant Churches in Italy
- The Hungarian case: Dr. Zoltán Lomnici, lawyer and former lecturer of the Department of Constitutional Law at the Eötvös Loránd University

10:30 Break

10:45 Welcome back

Energizing group activity

Introduction to following workshop

11:00 Community table

Workshop in small groups

Task: Exploring the practice – Reflect on how Churches can be the salt in the soup

12:00 Lunch break

13:00 Community table

Workshop in small groups

Plenary session

Task: Presenting the ideas developed during the Community table and the workshops

14:00 “Salt in the soup: how to create a sense of community”

Keynote talk and group reflection

Topic: Reflection on the approaches to be taken for discovering common ground and identifying what we should feedback into our communities and Churches from the experiences at the Online Academy

Speaker: Alex Wimberly, Leader of Corrymeela, Peace & Reconciliation centre, Northern Ireland

15:00 Conclusions and feedback

15:30 End of the programme